HAMILTON GIVES EXHIBITIONS ON AQUEDUCT TRACK.

He Lands Sparkler a Winner in the Second Race in a Head-to-Head Finish With Doggett as His Competitor in the Third, He Wins on Eclipse, But Plays Tossup With the Field to Do It—Chugnut Working Up a Reputation—Walker Upsets Soup Perkins at Louisville—Day's Racing Results—Other Sporting News.

New York, May 11.—The chief features at Getaway day at aqueduct was the head-and-head driving finish of Hamilton and Doggett in the second race in which Hamilton landed Sparkler a winner after a good deal of urging with whip and spur, and Hamilton's careless riding of Eclipse, in the third race. In this race Eclipse started on the outside of the track with the others close to the rail. As they swung around his first turn Hamilton tried to take the lead and succeeded in bumping into Clarus and Royal H. so hard that they threw Kalkshoe down and nearly escaped with slight bruises. The stewards cautioned Hamilton for his reckless work. Chugnut established his reputation as a repeater by winning the first race easily, although he had to be shaken up to win. Loyalette was a good thing in the fourth and won easily while Brimington and Nana H. had a tight fit for the place. Septour won the last race easily. Summaries:

First race—Half mile: Chugnut won; Phoenix, second; Honolulu, third. Time 1:43 1/2.

Second—Half mile: Sparkler won; Deupesser, second; Lawrence P., third. Time 1:50.

Louisville Races.

Louisville, Ky., May 11.—Altogether it was a bad day for the talent, for during the first race he had and win came up, making the track a veritable sea of mud. The Oaks, the principal race of the day, fell to Souffle, the favorite. Soon after the fall of the flag Thorpe took her to the front and led all the way to the wire, winning by ten lengths, with Myrtle Harkness the same distance in front of Elsie D. In passing the stand the first time Walker, who was riding Elsie D., ran into Allegro, as it appeared, purposely. Allegro went down and rolled over Soup Perkins. The latter was conveyed to the Jockey's room, where he received medical attention. His injuries are thought to be serious. Walker was called into the judges' stand and suspended for one year. Summaries:

First race—Five furlongs, selling: Elsie D. won; Red, second; La Princess, third. Time 1:36 1/2.

Second—Six and a half furlongs, selling: Joe Thayer won; Prentiss, second; Dorette, third. Time 1:54.

Fifth—Six and a half furlongs, selling: Hutton won; Oracle, second; Sir Dilke, third. Time 1:54.

St. Louis Races.

St. Louis, Mo., May 11.—Three favorites managed to score at the fair ground today, one second choice and two outsiders taking the other races. Scrib, Neutral and Flying Dutchman won their races with ease. Sir Play only lost Vassal a nose for the place in the last race. Summaries:

A CONFIDENTIAL CHAT

between two men or women generally develops the fact that one or both are troubled by sickness of some kind. One man is all right except his rheumatism, another has a "slight touch" of dyspepsia, another has bilious headaches, and another is too nervous to sleep well. What is to be done about it? The situation is serious. Little things have a way of getting big. Big diseases are bad things. Sleeplessness brings irritability, nerves, loss of flesh, loss of appetite. Sleepless people seem to get their bodies into such a condition that disease germs find it easy to lodge there and propagate. People die from the aggravation of the disease of little things. The more promptly a disease of disorder is met the more quickly it is cured. Most all sickness starts in the stomach, liver or lungs. Rheumatism, scurvy, eczema, consumption, come about because insufficient, impure or impoverished blood is present. The diseased blood finds the weakest spot in the body and a local symptom appears. If the impurity is supplanted with good, rich, healthy corpuscles, the disease will have nothing to feed on. If the proper cleansing medicine is sent to the seat of the trouble, it will force out the germs and repair the damage done.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a cleansing, purifying medicine, a blood enricher, a nerve strengthener. It is an efficient tonic, aids digestion, creates healthy appetite and healthy blood. It does not make people "fat." It makes them strong. It makes useful flesh—solid muscle. It will cure any sickness that has its source in the digestive organs, or through them in the blood.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of disease are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If, however, you are afflicted with constipation, or any other ailment, you may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands out highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

a sensation, Miss Fellows being a Washington City belle and highly connected and educated. Following the marriage the pair were on exhibition in various dime museums, and in that way accumulated quite a fortune.

On their last visit here Chaska and his wife were fine clothes, brilliant diamonds and handsome jewelry. All these, together with the money and Chaska himself, have gone, and the former belle of Washington society now lives near Carthage, Mo., a deserted and half-starved woman. Her husband, a destitute woman with three children dependent upon her for care and support. In her letter Mrs. Cannon says: "A few days ago my attention was called to a widow in destitute circumstances. I filled a basket with bread meat, coffee, sugar, cookies, etc., and father took a small sack of apples, and I went to see her. She was, indeed, destitute, not only of food, but of clothing and house furniture. The woman was care worn and sickly looking. I soon discovered that she was educated and refined, and evidently had seen better and happier days. During our conversation three children came into the room, two boys and one girl; the oldest, a boy, was about seven years old, and showed very plainly that in old blood coursed in his veins; the girl and younger boy were less Indian marked, but the traces were quite noticeable.

"The woman told me they were her children, but did not say their father was an Indian nor that he was dead. I remarked that the little girl was quite small, and she 'lost him.' The mother said she was at one time a teacher at the Rosebud Indian agency and at Santee; that before going there she lived in Washington, D. C., and had been married against the wishes of her people. I afterward learned that her husband deserted her and married a squaw. She now has no knowledge of his whereabouts. She is not strong enough to work, but tries to do washing or other labor for the support of her children. He is capable of teaching, but can get no employment in that line. The aid society of the Methodist church has aided her very much, and is now raising money to send her and the children to the boarding school at Santee, where she will look after her. She is anxious the public should forget her and her marriage with Chaska, the Sioux Indian."

WARNER WINS ANTI-DAVIS FIGHT

Why They Claim That He is Ineligible to Governorial Honors.

Kansas City, Mo., May 11.—The boom for governor of ex-Mayor Webster Davis is liable to burst on the ground of his ineligibility to fill that office. The faction of the Republican party headed by Mayor William Warner has, it is claimed, decided to make a strong fight against Davis on the ground that he had not been a continuous resident of the state for seven years, as is required by the constitution. Davis' place of residence, the Warner men claim, was Pueblo, Colo., from April 1, 1893, to Feb. 1896.

DEFENDERS RISE UP

CHICAGO MINISTERS CHAMPION THE CAUSE OF DR. BROWN.

Not as Asserting His Innocence of Any Charge Brought Against Him, But as Not Being Clear as to Whether Justice to the Deposed Minister has Been Done—It is Remarkable Upon an Extraordinary Suspension on Charges, the Subject of Which has Been Acquired by a Council—Committee Appointed to Investigate.

Chicago, May 11.—A decided surprise was sprung at the close of the regular meeting of the Congregational ministers at the Sherman house today, when Rev. J. F. Lohr, the secretary and chairman of the business committee, introduced a resolution asking that a committee be appointed to review the action of the Bay association of California in suspending from the ministry the Rev. Charles O. Brown, D. D., of the First Congregational church of San Francisco. After he had been found not guilty of a charge of immorality by a specially called council. The resolution brought a storm of objections from a number of the ministers present, who emphatically claimed that the Chicago Congregational Ministers' union was too far away to review the action of the Bay association. A dozen champions of Mr. Brown immediately arose, and after several spirited speeches the resolution was carried by an unanimous vote. It was as follows:

"In view of some uncertainty in the minds of the brethren of the Chicago ministerial union as to the ecclesiastical propriety and wisdom of the Bay association of California in suspending Rev. C. O. Brown, of San Francisco, from the ministry.

TOO HOT FOR ORATORY

Methodist Brethren Cut Out a Lot of Committee Work, Though.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 11.—The high temperature and humidity of the atmosphere both operated to prevent a burst of oratory at the Methodist Episcopal conference today and the routine business transacted was disposed of with as little effort as possible. The most important question disposed of was the fixing of the time for the election of bishops. The election will begin on Thursday of this week and continue until all officers are chosen. Resolutions were presented favoring the abolition of the color line in the election of bishops and condemning l
